

Dr. Neal Cushman

Neal Cushman is the Director of the Global Opportunities Office at Northland International University. Neal has taught in the Cross-Cultural Studies Department at NIU since 1991. In addition to his teaching ministry (currently Greek Exegesis; Social Anthropology; Philosophy of Ministry), he has served as the director of several summer missions teams and has been a church planter, missionary, and camp director. Neal's passion is for training college young people for missionary service. He holds degrees from Bob Jones University in Greenville, SC (B.A., M.A.) and Baptist Bible Seminary in Clarks Summit, PA (Ph.D.). Neal and his wife, Pam, have three grown children.